by

Matthew G. Bevin
Governor

of the

Commonwealth of Kentucky

To All To Whom These Presents Shall Come:

- WHEREAS, An estimated 246,660 women and 2,600 men in the United States will be diagnosed with breast cancer this year; and
- WHEREAS, 3,470 Kentuckians are battling this disease, which is the second-leading cause of cancer deaths among Kentucky women; and
- WHEREAS, Early detection of breast cancer can save lives, which is why medical experts stress that women complete routine mammograms; and
- WHEREAS, First Lady Glenna Bevin is dedicated to raising awareness for those who have battled or are currently battling breast cancer; and
- WHEREAS, In honor of breast cancer survivors, the First Lady continues a "Celebration of Hope" by raising funds to further breast cancer research; and
- WHEREAS, The First Lady encourages all Kentuckians to support the fight against breast cancer;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MATTHEW G. BEVIN, Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, do hereby proclaim the month of October 2016, as

BREAST CANCER AWARENESS MONTH

in Kentucky.

DONE AT THE CAPITOL, in the City of Frankfort the 12th day of October, in the year of Our Lord Two Thousand Sixteen and in the 225th year of the Commonwealth.
